Course Overview

“Our world revolves around ideas. Politicians, military leaders, CEOs, media moguls, and academics may think they are in charge of world affairs, but what they think—the ideas in their heads—actually control them. Ideas are the guiding force behind every twist and turn in public opinion. They determine what we accept or reject in the arts, media, business, science, education, politics, family, church, and the list goes on endlessly. We cannot understand what’s going on in the world until we look below the surface at the ideas that influence our beliefs and behaviors. These ideas can be grouped into six major worldviews. This curriculum is about the ideas that construct our worldviews. Everyone has a worldview, which helps them interpret what is happening around them. Christianity has an explanation for reality, but so does Islam, Secularism, Marxism, New Spirituality, and Postmodernism. Each of these worldviews is founded upon a pattern of interconnected ideas. These worldviews dictate (consciously or unconsciously) how we interpret and respond to issues like stem-cell research, abortion, transgenderism, human rights, poverty, technology, etc. Make no mistake, these worldviews are at war. This curriculum will open your eyes to the factions competing for your heart and mind.”

My goal for this year is to compare different world views against Christian ideologies and help show students why we believe in what we believe in and hopefully strengthen their faith as well as increase their hunger for the Kingdom of God.

The Classroom:

This class will take place on Fridays from 10:30am-12:30pm. We will read and have discussions and lesson-based activities. Students will be expected to participate in discussions and come ready to dive deep into what is being talked about for the day.

At Home:

Students will have 3 homework assignments per week that will consist of reading and answering questions. Please make sure your student is completing the assignments in a timely manner and not waiting until the last minute to do the homework. This will affect their grade.
